Air Freight

DL with the D for Delivery and Dedication

If you have chosen the fastest method for sending your shipment, we realize that every minute counts. Fast, faster, fastest. DL has been an air freight specialist for many years, and undertakes this task with pleasure. Our air freight services literally know no boundaries.

Why choose DL Air?

DL's air freight service delivery qualifies as a 24-hour service, with a worldwide network, excellent information, keen pricing and – most importantly – employees who approach air freight as an interesting challenge. We make every effort to deliver the best assistance and information.

Expertise and dedication?

DL Freight Management (Amsterdam) BV focuses particularly on serving intercontinental shipping sectors where logistics is even more crucial than in other sectors. For example:

- Perishables
- Pharmaceutical industry

- Aviation industry
- Textile industry

DL is also just the company you need to airfreight your special goods, such as dangerous cargoes and perishables transported in clean trucks. We deal with your goods as if it were our own.
